Right of Detained Immigrant to Leave Botswana.

7. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 6 (b), any person detained in pursuance of that provision shall, unless liable to detention under some other lawful authority, be allowed to depart from Botswana for the purpose of entering some other country if he satisfies an immigration officer that it is lawful for him to enter such other country without his possessing a right of re-entry to Botswana and that he possesses the means and in fact intends to enter that country.

Recognition of Immigrant as Political Refugee.

8. (1) When the Minister receives the report of an enquiry held in terms of section 4 he may —

(2) Where, in terms of subsection (1), the Minister declares that he does not recognize a person as a political refugee such person shall, if liable to be removed from Botswana under the Immigration Law, be so removed and shall, whether so liable or not, be subject in all respects to the provisions of that law.

(3) Save where this Act otherwise provides, a person who is recognized as a political refugee shall be subject to the provisions of the Immigration Law in all respects as if the declaration of recognition had not been made.

Restriction on Removal and Control of Refugee.

9. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 10, a recognized refugee shall not be removed from Botswana under the provisions of the Immigration Law except to a country approved by the Minister, being a country in which, in the opinion of the Minister, the refugee will not be subject to political persecution.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), a recognized refugee who is liable to be removed from Botswana under the provisions of the Immigration Law may be detained by an immigration officer pending such removal, and if he is so detained the provisions of section 15 (2) and (3) of the Immigration Law shall apply in relation to him as if he were being detained under subsection (1) of that section :

Provided that where in the opinion of the Minister, delay is likely to occur before such removal may be effected the Minister may, in his sole and absolute discretion, direct that the refugee shall not be detained under this subsection but shall while he remains in Botswana be subject to all or any of the following conditions —

- (a) that the refugee shall reside at a place or within an area specified by the Minister ;
- (b) that the refugee shall not depart from such place or area or only depart therefrom subject to such conditions as may be specified by the Minister ;

- (c) that the refugee shall give recognizances for his good behaviour in such form and subject to such conditions as may be specified by the Minister ;
- (d) that the refugee shall report to the police or such other authority as may be specified by the Minister in such manner as he may determine ;
- (e) that the refugee shall not take an active part in the politics of Botswana or of any other country in Africa or not take part in such activities, being activities of a political nature, as may be specified by the Minister ;
- (f) such ancillary or additional conditions as may appear to the Minister to be necessary or desirable in the circumstances of the case.

(3) The Minister may at any time withdraw or modify a direction under the proviso to subsection (2).

(4) Any recognized refugee who having been released from detention in terms of the proviso to subsection (2) fails to comply with any condition of such release shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R500 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

Departure of Refugee from Botswana.

10. (1) A recognized refugee who is not detained under section 9 (2) or other lawful authority may leave Botswana at any time.

(2) A recognized refugee shall on his departure from Botswana cease to be a recognized refugee.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 9 (1) any recognized refugee who is detained under section 9 (2) shall, unless he is liable to detention under some other lawful authority, be allowed to depart from Botswana for the purpose of entering some country other than a country approved by the Minister in terms of section 9 (1) if he certifies in writing that he wishes to enter that other country and satisfies an immigration officer that it is lawful for him to enter that country without his possessing a right of re-entry to Botswana and that he possesses the means to do so.

Review of Case of Recognized Refugee.

11. (1) Not more than six months after the recognition of a refugee under section 8, and thereafter at intervals of not more than six months, the case of that refugee shall be reviewed by a Committee, who shall advise the Minister —

- (a) whether to exercise any of his powers under this Act or the Immigration Law in relation to that refugee ;
- (b) as to the moral and economic welfare of that refugee ; and what steps should be taken to secure the same.

(2) On receiving the report of a review held in terms of subsection (1) the Minister may —

- (a) if he considers that there is no or insufficient reason to continue treating the refugee as a political refugee declare that he no longer recognizes him as a political refugee ;
- (b) direct the Committee to reopen the review or to make further report in the matter ;
- (c) take such alternative or additional steps open to him under this Act or otherwise in relation to the refugee as may appear to him most proper.

(3) The provisions of section 5 shall have effect for the purposes of a review under subsection (1) as they have for the purposes of an enquiry under section 4.

Recognizances.

12. Where under the provisions of the proviso to section 9 (2) a recognized refugee is required to give recognizances and such recognizances include the entering into of a bond for an amount of money to be forfeited if the conditions of the bond are broken, the Chief Immigration Officer may, upon breach of any condition of the bond, make application to a court of competent jurisdiction which may give judgment against the refugee or his sureties in accordance with the conditions of the bond.

Residence of Refugee Not Ordinary Residence.

13. For the purposes of any other written law, other than a taxation law, any period during which an immigrant has resided in Botswana as a recognized refugee shall not be regarded as a period during which he has been ordinarily resident in Botswana.
